6. IDSF Ranking Points Schedule

See enclosure

The points in the schedule for IDSF International Open and IDSF Open are basis points. The points get an addition according to the conditions of IDSF. The addition is subject to a higher number of entries as the minimum number, a higher number of IDSF member associations represented in the competitions as the minimum number and the ranking places of the participating couples. The calculation will be made by the IDSF Sports Director. Conditions for an addition to the basis points:

48 to 95 couples in the competition	25 %
96 and more couples in the competition	30 %
192 and more couples in the competition	35 %
Couples from 8 to 12 IDSF member associations and a minimum of 48 couples	20 %
Couples from more than 12 IDSF member associations and a minimum of 48 couples	30 %
7 adjudicators from 7 IDSF member countries	10 %
9 adjudicators from 8 IDSF member countries	10 %
9 adjudicators from 9 IDSF member countries	15 %
11 adjudicators from 10 IDSF member countries	15 %
11 adjudicators from 11 IDSF member countries	20 %
6 couples from the first 12 of the IDSF Computer World Ranking list in the competition	50 %
6 couples from the first 24 of the IDSF Computer World Ranking list in the competition	20 %

7. Applications for IDSF World Ranking Tournaments

Applications for IDSF World Ranking Tournaments must be submitted to the IDSF Sports Director 6 month in advance.

8. Number of Competitions for the IDSF Computer World Ranking List

To have always an up to date IDSF Computer World Ranking List there are always the best 6 results –Adults-, 5 results – Seniors -, of the couples of the last 12 month in the IDSF Computer World Ranking List, that means, a couple can have results being cancelled. The result of the IDSF World Championship (Adult and Senior) and IDSF World Open (Adult) is in the IDSF Computer World Ranking List up to the next IDSF World Championship/IDSF World Open.

9. Exceptions

For Competitions outside of Europe IDSF can make special exceptions from these regulations.
